Summer Mission Appeal

Brief Profile of the Diocese of Damongo, Ghana

Damongo Diocese was erected in February 1995, carved out of the Archdiocese of Tamale. It is a rural diocese and is coterminous with the five most deprived civil districts of our country. The diocese is ethnically diverse (over 23 known tribes). It has a population of about half a million (500,000) people. More than 86% of the Diocese's population lives in rural communities with populations under 1000 people. The economic and social infrastructure in the area is highly underdeveloped. Subsistence farming is the mainstay of majority of the people, about 78.5% of the population. Education in general is very poor in this part of the country due to lack of facilities and also the resources for parents to send their wards to school. As a result there is a very high illiteracy rate, 80.% among women and 73% among men.. Poverty in the area is extremely high and there are practically no formal income and employment opportunities.

The mission of the Diocese is primary evangelization, with a Catholic population of 26,504 with high prospects for evangelization. The predominant faiths in the area are African Traditional Religion (animists) and Islam. 80% of the population is animists – worshippers of African Traditional Religion, who are open to Christianity. Over 65% of the Catholics are young people of school going and unemployed. The diocese has thirteen (13) rural parishes with over160 mission stations, being served by 47 priests (45 indigenous and 2 religious), six (6) religious men and 29 religious women, two (2) lay mission helpers, and 25 catechists. Preparations are underway to creating new parishes. There are fourteen (14) seminarians in training for the priesthood.

Our main challenges as a rural diocese include:

1. Lack of basic administrative infrastructure and institutions needed to carry out our mission of primary evangelization.
2. A very young Catholic population. Between 60% to 70% of the Catholics are young people of school going and unemployed.
3. Lack of churches (chapels) in our mission stations (village communities)
4. Poor educational facilities education, the result being 95% illiteracy among women and 74% among men.
5. Lack of health facilities and poor health care delivery systems
6. A multi-ethnic populace (23 ethnic groups)
7. Rain fed subsistent farming is the mainstay of the people (90%)
8. The aggressive propagation of Islam in the villages through the construction of mosques.

The pastoral priorities of the church include: education and human promotion of the youth; faith formation of the laity, youth and families; formation of agents of evangelisation i.e formation of catechists, outstation prayer leaders, and seminarians for the work of primary evangelization; drilling boreholes to provide potable drinking water for the people; building of health care facilities in our deprived communities; building of small Churches in the mission stations (villages) as places of worship and visible signs of the presence of the church; promote peacebuilding, rural development and co-existence among the 23 ethnic groups living together in the diocese.

BETHLEHEM ART

THIS WEEKEND! JULY 6 & 7

We will host representatives of the Catholic Christian Community from Jerusalem and Bethlehem in the Holy Land who will be displaying handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles. Due to the political conflict and the reduction of tourism, the Catholic Community has come to depend more on the sale of these articles abroad to survive and to keep their faith and Christian presence in the holy land. The woodcarvings are beautiful and reflect faith and love for the Lord. Please consider purchasing a gift that will be remembered and cherished for yourself or someone dear to you. The handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles will be available for purchase after all the weekend Masses.

Become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion Share Christ, Build Community

In his book, Holding God in My Hands, author Paul Wilkes speaks of the privilege of giving communion, and the “healing grace, spiritual strength and peace” of sharing Christ’s presence with others.

This opportunity to share the Lord with others is available to you as well – during Masses at Faith Hope. Communion ministers will tell you that it is a beautiful experience and a wonderful way to serve.

You can choose your Mass and your frequency of service.

“The melody that the loved one played upon the piano of your life will never be played quite that way again, but we must not close the keyboard and allow the instrument to gather dust. We must seek out other artists of the spirit, new friends who gradually will help us to find the road to life again, who will walk that road with us. “
