Who Says That?

Use the words in the box to tell who is making each statement.

You can use a word more than once.

1. I am studying to become a priest.
I serve the community by preaching and assisting at Mass. I also baptize and witness marriages.

2. I serve the community often as a pastor of a parish. I administer the sacraments, and I preside at Mass.

3. I am the head of a number of parishes, called a diocese. I serve the community as the spiritual leader of my diocese.

4. I am not a priest, but I serve the community as an ordained minister.
I preach, assist at Mass, baptize, witness marriages, and serve the needs of the community.

5. I am part of the episcopal college.
I help the pope guide the Church.

6. My title comes from the Greek word
presbyter, which means "elder."
